

ALL PARTICIPANTS MUST READ AND FAMILIARIZE THEMSELVES WITH THIS CODE OF CONDUCT

Titus Mountain Family Ski Center is your “host” this weekend and has formulated the following, in conjunction with the Fourth Coast Jeep Club, to see that each and every person in attendance understands what is expected of you and can enjoy themselves in a safe, fun environment. We look for everyone to experience a day of Jeep entertainment and friendships that will be carried on long into the future since many of us will cross paths again sometime, somewhere.

All Participants:

- All vehicles must display their entry tag in a visible area at all times (rearview mirror is suggested).
- All participants must wear their participant wristband at all times.
- Please enter course(s) from all marked entrances. Mid-course entry is not allowed.
- Seatbelts are MANDATORY at ALL times for EVERYONE in the vehicle.
- Keep hands and feet inside the vehicle at ALL times during the event.
- Watch for and listen to all instructions of Course Marshalls.
- ABSOLUTELY NO alcohol will be allowed past course entry points.
- Drinking and driving, including “buzzed” driving, will not be tolerated.
- All vehicles must fit within their assigned space or park in the assigned spectator parking zone.
- If unsure, ask.

ALL Event Attendees:

- No outside alcohol is permitted on property.
- Dogs MUST be short leashed.
- Trailer parking is not permitted in the “Show & Shine” area.
- Campers are allowed in the marked “Camping Zone” and are on a first-come, first-served basis. There is no electric or water available. No fires are permitted anywhere on property. Campers must clean up after themselves; please bring out what you bring in.
- Please park in designated areas.
- Selling of auto parts or products is not permitted in the camping area or parking lots. You must purchase a swap/meet space.
- Respect your show-field neighbors, event staff, vendors, fellow participants, spectators, and course and property staff.

ANY violators shall be given ONE warning prior to being ejected from the event without refund.
